

Aloo Telecom invests BRL 50 mln in fibre optic network

Tuesday 20 September 2016 | 13:52 CET | News

Brazilian regional operator Aloo Telecom has invested BRL 50 million into a fibre optic backbone in northeast Brazil that became operational last week, reports Diario do Nordeste. The line starts in Fortaleza and passes the cities of Mossoro, Natal, Joao Pessoa, Recife,

telecompaperTHANK YOU FOR VISITING TELECOMPAPER

We hope you've enjoyed your free articles. Sign up below to get access to the rest of this article and all the telecom news you need.